Council Tangles Over Two Issues

Daly City Board To Send Contingent Of 140 Into Army

Draftees To Hold Pre-Induction Meeting, Tuesday

As the fighting forces of the United States Army increase and army camps all over the country fill up with new recruits, Daly City Draft Board No. 103 broke a record this week, drafting 140 selectees. This is the largest group ever to be inducted from this board.

A contingent of physically fit men from Daly City, Colma and other cities included in the local draft board, the draftees will be inducted in San Francisco, Wednesday morning, leaving from the Daly City headquarters. The draftees will hold a pre-induction meeting with the board, Tuesday afternoon, at selective service headquarters in the city hall. They will receive final instructions before entering the army and six leaders will be appointed.

Among the 140 men, Daly City is represented by 41. Following is the list of Daly City draftees: Fred Robert Willer, Peter George Tolori, Earl Edward Olson, George William Claus, Sammy Salvador Lucia, Edward Joseph Pribula, Hymie Herman Mendelson, Raymond Charles Macaire, Gerald Norman Reposa, James Albion Byrne, Frank Havill Hicks, Frank Joseph Heinzel, Donald Alexander Mills, Robert Hastings Lewis, Raymond Hursel Hurlbut, Fred John Claus, George Kirchubel, Archie Bigazzi, Daniel Merviel Gilbrech, Paul Marvin Lewis, Alfred Bal-

LOCAL SCHOOLS COMPLETE PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Four Students To Speak At Jeff

One of the largest classes ever to be graduated from Jefferson Union high school will receive diplomas at the school auditorium, next Wednesday evening. When the curtain rises at the commencement exercises, parents and friends will see more than a hundred capped and gowned seniors on the stage. The girls, carrying bouquets of yellow roses and a delphinium, will be dressed in white, the boys, in black.

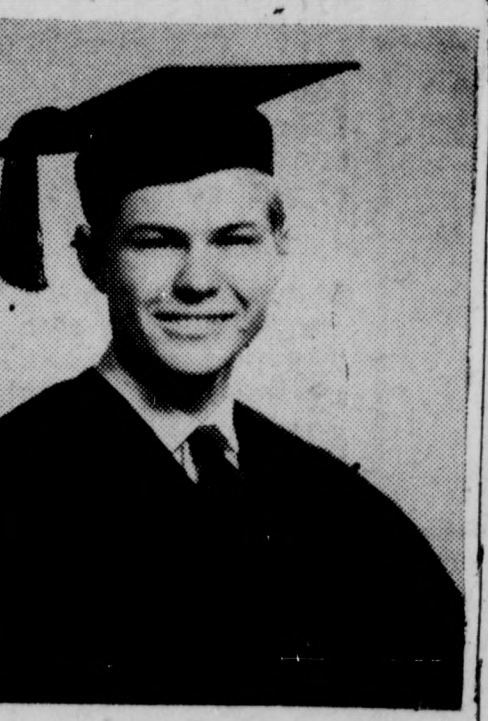

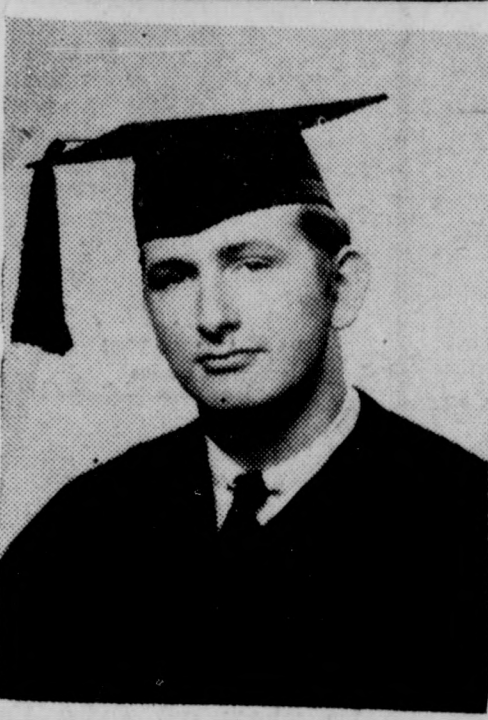

Addressing classmates and visitors will be four student speakers. The address of welcome will be given by Allen Rigler, president of the class; the farewell speech, by Roy DeVincenzi, president of the student body. Outstanding student among the boys, Charles May, will discuss "Youth Serves Today," while Betty Inks, highest in scholarship among the girls, will give an address entitled "Youth Trains to Serve Tomorrow."

Music for the exercises will be furnished by the high school orchestra and chorus under the direction of Oscar Busch. The invocation is to be given by Father Adrian McKenna, Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, while the benediction will be said by Reverend Lionel F. Brown, Grace Presbyterian church. C. S. F. members will usher.

After the diplomas are handed out by Remi Sanders, president

COLMA COUNCIL STUDIES NEED FOR PROTECTION

Vital need for increased fire protection in the Town of Colma incorporated was given careful study at the regular meeting of the town council, Monday morning. As a result, action is under way, this week, to establish fire fighting means for the city.

Two possibilities for fire protection were brought to the foreground by the council:

1. Establishment of a local fire department in the city limits of Colma incorporated, with purchase of new equipment by the city, and utilization of volunteer firemen.

2. Execution of an agreement with an already established fire department outside the city limits, notably that of Colma unincorporated, whereby the designated "outside" department would respond to all of Colma's fires. Finance on a yearly basis would be arranged with the fire department by the town council.

The board expected to act on the matter within the week. If it is agreed to organize independently, fire protection equipment would be purchased immediately. Consensus of the board appeared to be in favor of the town organizing a fire department of its own.

"We have a group of young men here that are showing a great deal of enthusiasm toward the fire protection of Colma," declared Councilman Mattrup Jensen, "and we should back this enthusiasm by purchasing all the fire equipment they need."

Another issue that occupied considerable attention at the

Stormy Battle Of Words Breaks At Monday Session

Remove Fahey Jr. As Judge; To License Amusement Devices

Verbal warfare broke out in the council chambers at the city hall, Monday night, in the hottest session yet to be witnessed by the present city council. Two important issues voted upon carried by 3 to 2 votes under a heavy rain of fiery protest and verbal bombardments:

1. Judge John J. Fahey Jr. was removed from city judicial duties.

2. Pin ball machines and other amusement devices in local business houses were "legalized" when an ordinance introduced by Councilman H. H. Smith Jr., was passed, authorizing the licensing and control by the city of all pin ball machines and amusement devices.

Following the declaration of the judge's chair as vacant, Councilman Smith made a motion to appoint R. C. MacArthur, local real estate man, to the post of city judge. Councilman Smith's motion found a second from Councilman Eugene Lynch. Councilman Edmund Cavagnaro led the opposition against the removal of Judge Fahey, pointing out the conditions under which Judge Fahey accepted the judicial duties, in effect, that when Judge Wade H. Clay, justice at the time of Fahey's appointment, had regained from ill health sufficiently to continue duties, Judge Fahey would resign. Cavagnaro was opposed to the new appointment because it would automatically prevent Judge Clay from returning to the office during the present term.

Councilman Smith's pin ball ordinance passed over the heavy opposition of Councilmen Cavagnaro and John J. Fahey Sr., both of whom charged that, by passing the ordinance, the city council was sanctioning a racket. Pointing out that there is a pay-

DALY CITY JOINS COUNTY IN BIG DEMONSTRATION

Dutch Harbor attacks by the Japanese and continued sea battles off the coast of Alaska brought Pacific seaboard cities to the grave realization of a possible air attack, and Daly City, as well as San Mateo county, unleashed civilian defense powers, Sunday, in a countywide mass demonstration.

Ordered by the San Mateo County Defense Council, the drill included all fifteen defense councils of San Mateo county in a pressure test in individual city protection and mutual aid between cities of the county.

Eighteen incidents, ranging from broken gas and water mains to bombs, fires, and incendiaries all over the city, were flashed across the control board in the civilian defense headquarters at the city hall, Sunday afternoon. Emergency repairs were being made by utility squads to "damaged" water mains in Daly City; thirty local "disaster casualties" were rushed to the emergency medical station at Jefferson Union high school; medical equipment was hurried to the medical station to take care of imaginary disaster sufferers; "fires" from incendiary bombs were ablaze in all parts of the city. All of Daly City's might in the protection of life and property of the community was mustered in Sunday's test of efficiency, quick action, and clear thinking.

Not only were incidents which were presumably happening in Daly City being taken care of, but other defense councils of the county telephoned for aid from Daly City in the San Mateo county drill. In the midst of local defense operations, the county defense council called the control center, asking them to dispatch two pieces of fire apparatus to help the South San Francisco Fire department in a major "fire" in that city. While the two trucks did not actually make a trip to South San Francisco, two pumper trucks were eliminated from the local demonstration to represent that they had gone to help South San Francisco.

Although the county test did not get under way until 2 p. m., the Daly City Fire department began drills at 9 a. m. Sunday morning with the Daly City Theatre building portrayed as a flaming structure. All of Daly City's modernized apparatus, including nine fire trucks, was in operation and all auxiliary firemen and regular department members

Don't Forget USO Benefit Tonight

It'll be for the USO tonight at 8 p. m. at the Jefferson Union high school auditorium when the music department "gives out" with a snappy USO Benefit Show, presenting the band and chorus in a stirring array of tunes.

Staged by the high school as a contribution to funds for the 1942 United Service Organizations campaign in Daly City, a nominal sum is being charged. The took part in fighting the imaginary fires. First aid was demonstrated in the drill by firemen, and the men lined up in military formation and went through gas drills.

Police protection and law enforcement bodies were out in full force during the county drill. Eight sections of the city were covered, each patrolled by a regular officer and a squad of auxiliary officers. Police lines were drawn by the auxiliary police in scenes of "disaster" where there were casualties or other incidents which aroused the curiosity of spectators. The drills are designed to block off the scenes and avoid a gathering of crowds on the streets. Traffic was checked in these disaster areas and was detoured around the involved point.

Air raid wardens serving in the Sunday "enemy air raid" were under the direction of Harry Mellicker, newly appointed chief air raid warden of the Civilian Defense Council. Wardens patrolled in 26 precincts of the city. Each precinct had a senior air raid warden who took care of telephone calls from the control center.

In the control center, nine women served as messengers and telephone operators for the Civilian Defense Council and control personnel. In charge of control center and the drill was Arthur J. Bodien, chairman of the Civilian Defense Council. R. L. Crane Jr. manned the control board. Dispatching services to the various scenes of "disaster" were Howard McHugh; Sergeant W. W. Sunderland, police; Captain Albert Sundstrom, fire; Bodien, utilities; James W. Robertson, first aid; Fred Collins; and Arthur H. Quirnbach, senior gas officer, who laid out the incidents for Daly City's drill. Also viewing operations in the control room were Mayor A. J. Gaggero and Councilmen H. H. Smith and

Demonstrated Erratic Driving To Wrong Man

"Something new was being added" as Harold Joseph Bannister, San Bruno, demonstrated a startling innovation in automobile driving on Mission street in Daly City—but he picked on the wrong man to show!

Travelling north on Mission street and driving on the wrong side of the street in a very erratic manner, Bannister's car narrowly escaped hitting a machine driven by Officer Carl Schwann of the Burlingame Police department, who was driving south.

After avoiding a collision, Officer Schwann gave chase, caught up with Bannister, and turned him over to the Daly City Police department. Bannister was jailed on a drunken driving charge and the police officer signed a complaint against him. Bail was set at $50.

Popular Business Man Dies Of Heart Attack

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Doselina Scoeca; two sons, Raymond and John Scoeca; a brother, Bernardo Scoeca, San Francisco; mother and several other brothers and sisters in Italy.

Funeral services were conducted, yesterday morning at 9 a. m. from W. C. Lasswell Company chapel. Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul at Holy Angels church, Colma. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery.

public is urged to attend this gay show for America's service men who are serving in army camps and fronts all over the world.

The benefit show tickets will be sold at the door of the auditorium before tonight's performance. The show is under the direction of Oscar Bush, head of the music department. Accompanying the musical talent of the high school in tonight's show will be a one act play directed by Roy J. Gale. Georgia Stamatis and Mary Falbo are the cast of the play.

Uniformed in spanking new capes for the show, the band will offer among other musical numbers "The Poet and Peasant Overture" and "Barber of Seville." The majorettes will do a special number with the band.

Negro spirituals will feature the chorus presentation in the show. Outstanding songs of the spirituals which will be sung are "Deep River" and "Go Down, Moses," as well as "Beautiful Dreamer" by Stephen Foster, and "Old Man River" by Jerome Kern. Miss Charlotte Hatch, new teacher at Jefferson Union high school, will sing a group of solos in the program.

Meanwhile, donations to the campaign to continue the fine service of the USO to America's fighting forces forged ahead in the city in great style, according to William P. Bolger, chairman of the drive. Banked for the USO drive in Daly City was $706, according to Bolger.

CONGRESSMAN ANDERSON WRITES HOME

JOHN Z. ANDERSON
Rep. Dist. California

Congress of the United States

House of Representatives

Washington, D. C.

June 2, 1942

To My Friends In The Eighth Congressional District:

It is not necessary for me to remind you we are at war, and in view of this fact everyone is expected to do the utmost to help achieve victory at the earliest possible date.

In keeping with this principle the Congress has been in session ever since that fateful December 7, when an apparently friendly nation turned traitorously to aggression and sought to rob us of everything that has made America great. What has happened since, is more or less history, but none will deny the need for vigilance on every front.

August 25 you in my district will elect your representative in Congress. For the past four years I have been your representative, and it has given me honor, privilege and pleasure to serve you here. During the coming months a campaign will be waged for the post I hold, and nothing would give me greater pleasure than to come home and meet with all of you once again. However, if I am to be loyal to you and to the United States I cannot leave my post to make a campaign among you, because if I did I would be sacrificing the very principles for which we are fighting.

So, I must rely upon you at home to carry on for me during this campaign, because whether I win or lose, I cannot in all sincerity place politics before patriotism and duty, and the trust you have placed in me in guarding your freedom and liberty is too great to sacrifice for political ambition. Politically speaking this may seem a foolhardy decision, but whatever it seems from a political standpoint, I believe it is the thing you have the right to expect me to do. We are faced with the salvation of those principles which include your right to have in the Congress the representative of your own choosing.

So, unless there is some now unforeseen opportunity, I must leave my campaign and my re-election as your representative here to those of you who believe with me that this is no time to sacrifice duty to political endeavor. In doing so I am not afraid, because in my heart I am convinced where my duty lies, and I know that you, my good American friends, agree with me. Whatever the outcome I will always be grateful for this opportunity you have given me to serve.

My deep appreciation and profound gratitude for the high trust you have reposed in me, and, believe me, your wellbeing and your interests shall ever be my first consideration, whether I be your representative in Congress, or just your neighbor in the Eighth Congressional district.

Very sincerely yours,

John Z. Anderson

Jeffersons Meet Defeat By San Mateo

Facing a strong San Mateo Blues team that has won ten games in eleven starts this season, Daly City's Jeffersons were defeated to the tune of 15 to 5, Sunday.

The game was marred by eight errors of the San Mateo team but the Jeffs failed to capitalize, and San Mateo won on the strength of some very effective pitching in the part of a San Mateo hucker, Casey Jones (that's the real monicker).

Jeff scored their runs in the fourth and sixth but in the next three innings the San Mateo defense tightened. A feature in the game was the hidden ball trick Jefferson pulled in the second inning tagging Petrocchi, Blues' catcher.

DALY CITY COUNCIL MEETING

off on all pin ball machines in order for them to continue to be operated, Councilman Fahey produced a letter which was written to him by Attorney General Earl Warren advising against the legality of pin ball machines.

City Attorney Edward Hoffman who drew up the measure, defended Councilman Smith's argument, demonstrating that the face of the ordinance was legal. Smith added that the letter Councilman Fahey referred to from the attorney general was written in 1940. Hoffman said that the legality was recommended by the California League of Municipalities.

Recognized by the chair, John J. Fahey Jr. entered the discussion at this point by producing and reading to the council an article which appeared in the current issue of the Reader's Digest and the Baltimore Sunday Sun which branded the pin ball game as "a sucker's game and a gangster's racket." Fahey also pointed out that both the Supreme Court and the New York City court held that it was illegal.

Following the passing of the two issues, attempts made by Councilman Smith to demote Police Chief James G. Reardon to the rank of patrolman failed when there was no second to the motion. Smith described Chief Reardon as a questionable head of the department, elaborating on several alleged actions by Reardon.

Buried under the fiery discussion were several routine measures which were passed by the council in Monday's session: a resolution was adopted transferring certain city funds to the general fund; a motion was passed instructing the city engineer to proceed with plans to construct a barbecue pit in Marchbank park; a motion was passed which authorized the acceptance of the consolidation program of the fire commission; and a number of resignations and appointments in the fire department were accepted on the recommendation of the fire commission.

Colma Volunteers

sistant and Police Chief Joseph Cavalli.

Every member of the volunteer forces in Colma is already taking, or will be taking the standard first aid course, while many of the volunteers are taking advanced first aid. In addition to general defense training, first aid, and gas drills, the Colma civilian defense volunteers have received instructions in fire prevention and protection from Bert Werder, county fire warden, and Arthur H. Quirnbach, Daly City civilian defense authority.

Control center for the council was set up in the new town hall. The entire building will be utilized for civilian defense purposes if needed. The building is equipped with a room to be used for emergency medical purposes. Plans are now proceeding to equip the room with complete emergency hospital supplies.

Commenting on Colma's civilian defense activities, Director Price explained:

"We have a unique setup here, unlike that which you will find in most cities, in that residences in Colma are scattered over such a widespread area with such a small population.

"Our organization is still in the primary stages, but it won't be long now until we will be complete in civilian defense preparedness, and, when that time comes, we want to be able to help other cities as well as help ourselves."

Tumbling On Ice

Tumbling on ice, a strenuous and difficult activity at best, is presented, garnished with hilarious comedy touches, nightly at Winterland in San Francisco, by the McKellens, Gil and Tuffy, in Shipstad and Johnson's dazzling Ice Follies of 1942.

Former Michigan state tumbling champions, the two pint-sized blade artists transferred their acrobatics to ice quite casually in 1935 while they were working in a Muskegon, Michigan, ice rink. One evening, after an Ice Follies performance, the boys were practicing their stunts when Oscar Johnson and Eddie Shipstad saw them. After that it was on and up.

As football players in the current dazzling Ice Follies, Gil and Tuffy are surpassing their own previous amazing performances. Skimming over the ice in a series of unbelievable stunts, at the same time playing football, the McKellens nightly tax the credulity of capacity audiences at Winterland.

San Franciscan Steals Cab From Joe Madison

Victim of automobile theft for the second time in six weeks, Joe Madison, operator of the Daly City Cab company, reported to police, shortly after midnight Sunday, that his cab had been stolen.

The cab was stolen while in service in Hunter's Point, and the Daly City Police department, receiving the call, recovered the cab on Wellington avenue in Daly City. Sergeant W. W. Sunderland and Officers Joe Kusber and Henry Sundermann jr. found the cab to be in the possession of five San Francisco men, James Murray, Thomas English, James B. Duggan, Edward Valencia, and Patrick O'Connell.

Admitting to police that he took the cab, Murray was arrested on stolen automobile charges and booked through the San Francisco Police department.

First occasion of the disappearance of a Daly City cab was early last month when Frank Scraper, former driver for the Daly City Cab company, was charged with grand theft. He was picked up by local police after leaving the city with the machine.

DRAMATICS

A one-act play will be given this evening at the high school as part of the U. S. O. program. Georgia Stamatis and Mary Falbo will present an original comedy. The scene takes place in a second-hand store.

"His First Case" was presented to members of the adult Americanization classes, last Tuesday.

Taking part were: Elizabeth Blossman, Carmel Robin, Dorothy Kampa and Joyce Russell. Both productions were under the direction of Roy J. Gale, dramatics instructor.

Well sir, here it is—after fast and furious competition, the members of the student body went to the polls last week and cast their votes for their favorite students.

John Rericich was chosen to head the students for the fall term. Members of his executive board will include: Tillie Castro, vice-president; LaVerne Merlo, treasurer; Newton Kile, sergeant-at-arms; Walter Cavagnaro, judge; and Jennie Giusti, yell-leader.

Entertainment Committee
The entertainment committee was disbanded and reorganized, last week. Members of the newly-formed fall semester group include: Norma Pedemonte, chairman; Shirley Rice, secretary; Frank Feno, publicity manager; Tom Callan, Ed Allen, Elsie Belli, Viola Pissani, Pete Bistorfi, Sylvia Jordan, Jo Bricker, Newton Kile, Kenneth Ruffo, Rose Mary Dale, John Rericich, Ester Hannel, and Tillie Castro. The group is under the direction of R. Leonel Gray.

SENIOR EDITION
A week from today the senior editions will be off the press. Clive M. Saiz, journalism instructor, announced the members of his staff for the edition.

Helen Nordquist will act as editor; Betty Inks, Don Bannatyne, assistant editors; James Huston, Eugenia Rich, assistants; Charles Razzari, Bob Nava, and Earlyn Barker, sports editors.

Mrs. George Reandeanu, faculty member, announced her group which will assist in the production of the edition. Irene Maloney will be in charge of typing and Josephine Cipresso will be in charge of the mimeographing.

Walter Cavagnaro, Robert Bybee and Charles Razzari are doing the art work under the direction of Mrs. Effie Andersen.

JOURNALISM

Members of the journalism class were guests at the home of Clive M. Saiz and Garner Stenhouse, last Wednesday afternoon. The group viewed first editions and other collections.

Genuine hand-carved totem poles were given to the group as favors.

Among those attending were: Betty Inks, Helen Nordquist, Don Bannatyne, James Huston, Roy DeVincenzi, LaVerne Merlo, treasurer-elect of the student body; Mrs. Effie Andersen and Mrs. Elsie Bogosian.

PUBLIC SPEAKING
A group of over forty students of the public speaking class is busily engaged in delivering final speeches for the spring term, according to an announcement by Roy J. Gale, instructor.

"Labor's Part in the Present Emergency" was a debate presented to the class by Bob Grimes and Dick King.

One of the best speeches delivered so far, according to Gale, was Tom Coverdale's "America's Duty To Herself."

The program is being held in the Little theatre, this week and next.

SENIOR BALL
A spring garden was the setting for this semester's senior ball. The auditorium was transformed into a garden of flowers under the direction of Earlyn Barker and her committee.

Branches of evergreens with flowers of different shades of pink and white were clustered throughout the room. The colored lights and lovely formals added the last touch to the perfect evening.

Sports

SOFTBALL

Returns of the semester's softball tournament will be announced next week. The groups held no competition during the week of the water pageant.

AWARDS
Miss Juanita Young, physical education instructor, today announced awards would be presented to the following girls in volleyball and badminton: Mary Falbo, Edith Fasshauer, and Dorothy Freund, badminton; Eleanor Benedetti, Alice Crossland, Anna Crossland, Audrey Kusber, Jennie Morini and Virginia Trochi, volleyball.

Fire Sweeps
Destroying a warehouse of monuments belonging to the Daniels and Pancoast Monument company, a fire of undetermined origin threatened to spread in the town of Colma, last Wednesday night, before firemen could control the blaze.

The South San Francisco Fire department extinguished the blaze which leveled the warehouse to the ground and nearly set afire nearby trees and shrubbery. Also reported in danger was the property of E. A. Weisenburger, another Colma monument builder. Damage was estimated at $7000.

The South City firemen were aided by Colma firemen in controlling the high flames.

While in the midst of a civilian defense gas drill at Jefferson Union high school, Company 2 of the Daly City Fire department was summoned to the Colma blaze, but the South San Francisco Fire department had successfully controlled the fire when Daly City firemen arrived.

Although the direct cause of the fire was unknown, Police Chief Joseph Cavalli expressed the possibility of the return of burglars who ransacked the warehouse a week prior to the fire. Chief Cavalli had answered a call there and found the place had been entered and ransacked. He also found burnt paper on a table in the building. He said that it is possible that a second trip to the warehouse had been made by the burglars.

Two motion picture films, recently enjoyed by Crocker students, were a film on rabbit farming, which was shown to Room 3 pupils, and "King of the Rails," a film presented in Room 2.

Here's What Daly City Was Reading In May

Daly City, like most communities, has been doing a lot more reading since the war began. The most popular fiction during the month of May reflects local readers' preoccupation with the current war and its impact on individuals. Of course, several "escape" novels were just as popular. Heading the list in popularity for the fiction group were:

"Dragon Seed" by Buck, "Wind-swept" by Chase, "The Keys of the Kingdom" by Cronin, "I Remember Christine" by Lewis, "Pied Piper" by Shute, "The Sun Is My Undoing" by Steen, "The Moon Is Down" by Steinbeck, "Stampede" by White, and "A Leaf in the Storm" by Yu Tang.

Non-fiction readers in large numbers chose to pursue "Inside Latin America" by Gunther, "Berlin Diary" by Shirer, and "That Day Alone" by Van Paas-sen.

A Patriotic Pudding

By Frances Lee Barton

THERE is very likely to be a decided change in our eating habits before long. Certain foods from enemy countries will not be obtainable, and we shall have to depend upon foods from our own and friendly lands.

Why not get the habit of serving patriotic dishes now? Here's a pudding recipe for a starter — and I am sure you will agree that this particular pudding is just as delicious as anything made from unobtainable foods.

Orange Sponge Pudding

1/3 cup quick-cooking tapioca; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1 1/2 cups water; 2 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons lemon juice; 1/2 cup orange juice; 2 teaspoons grated orange rind; 3 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored; 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, and water in saucepan and mix well. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. (Mixture will be thin. Do not overcook.) Add butter, lemon juice, orange juice, and orange rind. Cool mixture 10 to 15 minutes while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until firm. Serve hot or cold. Serves 8 to 10.

way through the cemetery properties. The council moved to hold a special meeting, Tuesday morning, with representatives of both cemeteries and of the engineer's office of the Southern Pacific railway.

Reporting on civilian defense organization, Mayor Paul Deluchi stated that Colma was allotted gas masks by the San Mateo County Defense Council and ten more were reported on the way. The council agreed to obtain more first aid equipment for civilian defense, and Cypress Lawn cemetery offered the use of first aid facilities to the Civilian Defense Council. Serving as city attorney for the first time, Monday, was R. L. Ariani, newly-appointed legal adviser for Colma.

Although W. A. Newall, present councilman and former mayor of Colma, now resides in San Francisco, acceptance of his resignation from the board was postponed until the board determined whether he could still serve as councilman.
